13,14,19,20 & 21 February 2016

The Gingerbread Man by Sarah Delahunty, directed by Mary Collie-Holmes opens this Saturday 13 February at 3pm at Khandallah Park, Woodmancote Road, Khandallah. The annual play-in-the-park is very popular with families because it's a great opportunity to be entertained while sitting in the fresh air. The play has humour, excitement and audience participation; pack a picnic and bring your families, friends and neighbours to see an entertaining production. The play is just under an hour long.

If the weather looks doubtful (wet, damp or very windy) ring 499 4444 two hours prior to the start of the play. The inside venue is Cochran Hall, Cashmere Avenue School. Gold coin donation from everyone is requested to go towards the cost of the production.

Thank you to Autostop in Johnsonville who are providing the covered trailer for free during the production and Wellington City Council through the Neighbours' Day Aotearoa 2016 Fund.
